

is holding the 22nd annual Memphis British Car and Motorcycle Fest on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Youth Villages Bartlett campus, 7410 Memphis-Arlington.

The family event is free. All donations benefit Youth Villages, a private nonprofit organization in Bartlett dedicated to helping troubled children and their families, and Variety Children's Charities.

"The show is a great outdoors family event," says Jim Hofer, chairman of Memphis British Car and Motorcycle Fest. "It's fun for car lovers and families and children alike."

"The Youth Villages Bartlett campus will provide a shaded park-like setting for a wide variety of wonderful, classic sports cars — all in perfect condition. Many of these are cars that you otherwise would only get to see in museums," said East Memphian Jim Duke, chief judge of the Memphis British Car and Motorcycle Fest. "Plus, all proceeds raised at the event benefit two wonderful

Jim Duke of East Memphis, (from left) chief judge for the Memphis British Car and Motorcycle Fest, Dr. Jerry Billmeier of Germantown and Jim Ostner of Midtown, Jaguar Marque leader, British Car and Motorcycle Fest, visit the Youth Villages Bartlett campus with their antique British cars to survey the grounds. Preston and Kenneth are two children at Youth Villages who had the chance to see the cars up close — Duke's 1977 MG-B, Billmeier's 1949 Bentley Mark VI and Ostner's 1991 Jaguar XK 120.

terior and Best Presentation.

Concessions, grilled hamburgers and hot-dogs will be available.

Cars participating must be registered by 11 a.m. on Oct. 1. Cars can be registered on site Friday, from 7 to 10 p.m. or the morning of the show between 8 and 11 a.m. at the campus at. Cars can also be registered ma and Illinois. The annual car and motorcycle show is the largest in the region and attracts British car fans from neighboring states and from as far away as Canada and Florida.

Sonja Luecke is a public relations specialist for Youth Villages.