BSCC Christmas Party a Whopping Success!

There was no stopping BSCC revelers at the gala BSCC Christmas Party, hosted again by Patsy McQuirter. The dining room table was groaning under the weight of all sorts of goodies brought by the party goers, and a good time was had by all. Libations included soft drinks, beer and wine, and the desserts were scrumptious.

There was much laughter and good cheer, and all the guests behaved themselves as befitting a bunch of British car nuts. Gloria Fisher's lampshade-on-the-head trick was well received, but unfortunately, no photographs are known to exist.

BSCC Ladies Christmas Brunch

The ladies of the Memphis British Sports Club were invited for a festive Christmas brunch at the gorgeous home of Mary Ann Coleman on Wednesday, December 18. Those attending (photo) included June Haley, Sharon Duke, hostess Mary Ann Coleman, Gloria Fisher, Patsy McQuirter, Jane Reynolds and Bonnie Everson.

How many hours Mary Ann and Charles spent decorating their lovely abode is hard to say, but it must have taken many, many hours of ladder climbing and tree trimming. The food was equally impressive, with cuisine far surpassing the discriminating taste of all the car club princesses. After everyone settled in and the mimosas were poured, the agenda items took a decidedly spicy turn, a sample of which follows:

- The joy of mammograms;
- Your bathroom as your bordello;
- 101 outrageous uses for your vacuum cleaner;
- Christmas Party Etiquette: How to resist swinging from that chandelier after that tenth glass of vino;
- Your mother-in-law as a birth control measure;

What a terrific way to get everyone in the holiday spirit. Special thanks, Mary Ann, for hosting such a lovely event! Did we hear you say you couldn't wait to host our Christmas party next year? Gloria Fisher

Priscilla LeFevre, left, surveys the buffet. Husband Lynn is in dorway behind her. Jim Ostner, in plaid shirt, heads for the crab dip.

Glenn Sipe enjoys a sip of white wine while talking to Gloria Fisher in the kitchen. Gloria's black dress was a real crowd pleaser: despite substantial cross bracing, the straps slipped off her shoulders frequently during the evening.
